

Themes from the Open-Ended Feedback

Participants were asked to identify any additional strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and/or threats after reviewing the draft SWOT analysis.

These are the themes that emerged from each stakeholder group.

STAFF

22 Staff Participated in Focus Groups and 27 Staff Participated through Online Survey
49 Total Staff Participated

Additional Strengths Identified

- None

Additional Weakness Identified

- Too many initiatives
- Technology
- Functional instruction (i.e. independence and social skills)
- Embracing diversity in student/staff populations

Additional Opportunities Identified

- 1-to-1 initiative
- Additional support staff in the schools

Additional Threats Identified

- The increasing trend of anxiety and depression in students

Report compiled by CEC Director of Communications and Marketing Brett Clark

PARENTS/COMMUNITY

52 Parents/Community Participated in Focus Groups and 21 Parents/Community Participated through Online Survey
73 Total Parents/Community Participated

Additional Strengths Identified

- None

Additional Weaknesses Identified

- Executive function support for all students, especially younger students
- Retention of ineffective teachers

Additional Opportunities Identified

- Benchmark test scores against nearby/comparable districts, not the state
- Teacher and principal evaluations to include feedback from parents
- More technology available to students (i.e. 1-to-1 initiative)
- More STEM classes

Additional Threats Identified

- None

Report compiled by CEC Director of Communications and Marketing Brett Clark